

The 13th Hong Kong Outstanding Prospective Teachers Award Application Guidelines

I. Introduction

Education is the cradle of outstanding talent and has a profound impact on the sustainable development of society. Teachers are an important cornerstone for building quality education. Therefore, Hong Kong must continue to nurture outstanding prospective teachers, so that the outstanding teacher team can pass on the torch. Hong Kong New Generation Cultural Association and Hong Kong Prospective Teachers Association are organizing the "Hong Kong Outstanding Prospective Teachers Award" to provide opportunities for prospective teachers to learn from their peers and seniors, pursue excellence, and gain unanimous praise from the education sector. This year, we will continue our efforts and hope that through the election, we can encourage prospective teachers from different institutions to equip themselves, strive for excellence, and become excellent teachers in the future. We hope to improve human life and promote social progress through education. The judging panel of the "Hong Kong Outstanding Prospective Teachers Award" will consist of professionals in the education sector (principals of secondary schools, primary schools and kindergartens, and scholars). Through initial review, final review Q&A, and demonstration teaching, the "Outstanding Prospective Teacher" gold, silver, bronze awards and merit awards will be selected, and the winners will be commended.

II. Objectives

1. Commend prospective teachers with good teaching skills and educational aspirations.
2. Encourage prospective teachers to pursue excellence and continuously improve their teaching skills.
3. Provide opportunities for prospective teachers to learn from their seniors and peers, encourage each other, make progress together, and benefit society.
